

Horace D. Taft Alumni Medal and
Citation of Merit
1960 Recipient

Robert Livingston Johnson '14
1894-1966

Educator of all America, soldier, university president, reorganizer of government, administrator, holder of degrees, director of industry, clubman of great distinction, and creator and communicator of ideas. His career spans wide interests from the canyons of New York and the founding of a great national magazine to the heights of academic freedom as president of Temple University. None could have served his time better. Upon leaving New York to become a relief administrator of Pennsylvania and he thereby revealed his deep concern not only with ideas, their expression and communication, but also his practical understanding of human needs. His service to society has been varied and outstanding. The alumni of Taft take pleasure in conferring upon you their Citation of Merit.
