

Horace D. Taft Alumni Medal and
Citation of Merit
1999 Recipient

Donald Frederick McCullough '42 1925-2000

At age sixteen, a Taft graduate, heading off to Yale, your commitment to strive for the best was early in evidence in your singular accomplishments as a school monitor, letterman in football and track, and undefeated wrestler. In a lifetime of corporate leadership, you built one of the nation's great enterprises and advised others of equal stature. As an officer in the United States Navy, trustee of Philadelphia College, director of the Boys and Girls Clubs of America, and trustee of the Boy Scouts of America, you have given selflessly of your energies for the benefit of others. To your alma mater, you have given more, much more. Donald F. McCullough, you have sailed your beloved Taft into an astounding new era. As trustee spanning four decades and board chairman for the Nineties, you stood boldly at the helm, steering a course that transformed and beautified our campus, generated a more than ten-fold increase in endowment with the unparalleled success of the campaign for Taft, and affirmed Taft's preeminence among independent schools. All this you have done with your characteristic charm and sparkle in the eye. Mentor and friend, you have nobly embraced and fulfilled Horace Taft's most cherished wish for his students: Non Ut Sibi Ministretur Sed Ut Ministret. Today, with affection, gratitude, and admiration, we bestow upon you Taft's highest honor, the Alumni Citation of Merit.
