Frederick Holme Wiggin, Jr. '99
1882-1963

Native of Litchfield, graduate of Taft in the Class of 1899, of Yale College in the Class of 1904 and the Yale Law School, distinguished member of the Bar, and public servant extraordinary, your services to your fellow men have earned you wide respect and affection. You have served your own City of New Haven as president of the Community Chest, president of the Boys' Club, president of the Hospital. Your devotion to your University has been continuous throughout the years, and has been recognized through the award of the Yale Medal. You have served your school as a trustee, your profession as president of the Connecticut Bar Association, and your country in the Field Artillery Reserve in the First World War. Throughout this you have been known best as a warm friend, a stalwart individualist, a lover of music, and a man of rich humor and insight. In all ways you have exemplified in the highest degree the qualities which the Taft School exists to encourage, and therefore your alma mater proudly salutes you.
